Summary

Dorothy has used 56% of her quarterly budget, which puts her on track for steady, consistent care through BlueBerry Care. She's received 101 services this quarter without any hospitalisations in the past year, which is a positive sign that her support is working well. The system has flagged 83 low-level anomalies to review, though none have raised serious concerns at this stage. Overall, Dorothy's care looks stable and well-managed, but it's worth glancing through those flagged items to make sure everything is running smoothly.
