Summary

Wayly has identified over $7,800 in potential billing errors across your parent's care invoices over the past year, which means you're likely paying for services that weren't actually provided or were charged incorrectly. Unfortunately, none of these errors have been resolved yet, so that money remains outstanding and should be recovered. The good news is that at $468 for the subscription, Wayly has already paid for itself many times over, but the real priority now is getting those $7,862 errors actually fixed with the care provider rather than just flagged.
