Summary

Dorothy's doing really well this quarter with 83 services delivered and no hospital visits, which suggests her care plan is working as it should. She's used just under half her available budget at $3,250, leaving room for flexibility if her needs change or if she wants to try additional services. The good news is there are no open concerns flagged and her care is stable, though the system has noted 54 low-level anomalies that are worth keeping an eye on when you next chat with BlueBerry Care. Overall, Dorothy appears settled in her current arrangement with room to adjust her support if needed going forward.
