

Quarterly Budget Report

James Lukcy · Classification 7 · BlueBerry Care

Q4 FY2026 · 2026-04-01 to 2026-06-30

Summary

James is tracking well overall and has spent about 61% of his quarterly budget, leaving roughly $1,917 unspent right now. However, the fact that there are no days remaining in this quarter means his budget period has just ended, so you'll want to watch whether that remaining money carries forward or resets depending on your funding agreement. The more important thing to keep an eye on is that 13 anomalies have been flagged in his support services this quarter, which could indicate billing inconsistencies or gaps in the care he's receiving that need investigating. His care management services haven't been used at all yet, so if you're finding it hard to coordinate his care or make decisions about his support, that might be a resource worth accessing going forward.
