Summary

We need to talk about BlueBerry Care's performance with Dorothy's support at home. Out of eight statements we reviewed, there's not a single one showing actual service delivery, and seven of those statements contained concerning irregularities that suggest something isn't right with how they're recording or providing care. The most important thing for you to focus on right now is that BlueBerry Care hasn't responded to any correspondence about these issues, which means you're not getting answers when you ask questions. This combination of missing service records, unexplained anomalies, and poor communication adds up to a D grade, and honestly, this warrants a direct conversation with BlueBerry Care's management or a serious look at whether this provider is still the right fit for Dorothy.
