Summary

Over the past year, Wayly reviewed your mum's or dad's care invoices and found 50 things worth checking, though fortunately none of them added up to actual overcharges. The good news is your billing looks clean, but it's worth knowing that Wayly's service cost you $468 to provide that peace of mind. If you want to keep using it going forward, that's a straightforward annual cost to budget for, but if billing accuracy hasn't been a worry, you might decide to pause the subscription and redirect that money elsewhere.
