Summary

Dorothy's care spending is tracking well at 49% of the quarterly budget, so there's room to adjust services if needed without going over budget. BlueBerry Care has delivered 94 services this quarter, which is solid ongoing support. The system has flagged 83 low-level anomalies mostly around billing or scheduling details, but nothing urgent or concerning, these are routine administrative notes rather than anything that affects Dorothy's care quality. With no hospitalisations in the past year and no open concerns, Dorothy's support plan appears to be working well for her needs right now.
