Summary

Dorothy is receiving excellent care with no hospitalizations in the past year, which is wonderful news. However, her care costs have significantly exceeded budget this quarter at $12,135 against an expected $6,681, meaning you've spent 82% more than planned. This overspend is substantial and needs urgent attention with BlueBerry Care to understand whether it reflects genuine increased care needs, pricing changes, or billing issues that should be corrected. The good news is that Dorothy received 122 services with only 50 low-level flagged items, suggesting the care quality itself is solid. I'd recommend getting clarity from BlueBerry Care this week about what's driven the doubling of costs so you can plan ahead and avoid further surprises to your budget.
