Summary

Maud's support at home is running smoothly this quarter, with 17 services delivered and spending at 89% of the approved budget. The good news is that there have been no hospitalisations in the past year, which suggests the current care arrangement is working well. We've flagged 2 minor anomalies in the data, but nothing that needs immediate attention right now. Overall, you can feel confident that Maud's care is on track and delivering the support needed.
